Student Forum 2026

Monday 30 - Tuesday 31 March
Newcastle University

We are excited to invite exhibitors and sponsors to join us in supporting our annual Student Forum, which attracts around 80 delegates in-person every year. This two-day event run by the Royal Entomological Society's student representatives is aimed at undergraduate and postgraduate students studying insects.

The event provides an opportunity for students to network and discuss ideas with other students, consider options for future careers in entomology, and share their research in a welcoming space. There is an optional social/entomology pub quiz on the Monday evening which always proves very popular!
