Royal Entomological Society
Special Interest Group
Orthoptera

Orthoptera SIG 2026

Wednesday 4 November, Neil Chalmers Room, The Natural History Museum, London

CONFIRMED TALKS

Welfare in cultured Gryllus bimaculatus
Ross Hickles, Zoological Society of London

Cold cases in taxonomy: in search of the identity of Gryllus laurifolius Linnaeus, 1758 and Gryllus incarnatus Stoll, 1813Jack Waterfield
Luc Willemse, Naturalis, Netherlands

Passive acoustic amplification improves neural detection of bat ultrasound in katydids
Fabio Sarria-S, University of Lincoln

European tetrigids
John Paul, Institute of Unnecessary Research

New data on the bioacoustics of the elusive lichen-mimic katydid Markia hystrix
Charlie Woodrow, University of Lincoln

A monumental year for Orthoptera recording
Peter Sutton, Biological Records Centre

David Robinson: Orthopterist and Entomologist
Marion Hall, Open University

Current Orthoptera conservation projects at Buglife
Karim Vahed, Buglife

Red pigmentation in gregarious locusts
Leah Bancroft, University of Hull